Professional Summary

I am Abdullah, born in January 2005, currently a student at Imam Mohammad Ibn Saud Islamic University, majoring in Psychology. I'm in my third year and eager to develop both my personal and professional skills. I'm passionate about problem-solving, offering effective customer support, and learning from hands-on experiences that enhance my capabilities. I'm open to working in fields beyond my academic major to grow and gain real-world knowledge.
